

- 2001
- Founder Jeffrey A. Citron named Vonage's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.
 - Vonage raises $12 million in Series A financing round.

- 2002
- Vonage officially launches its service in March.

- 2003
- Vonage offers first ever VoIP platform for 911 calls.
 - Vonage raises its $15 million Series B financing round.

- 2004
- Vonage raises a total of $145 million from the $40 million Series C and $105 million Series D financing round.
 - Vonage and Circuit City are the first to offer VoIP services nationwide in retail stores.
 - Vonage launches service in Canada.
 - Mexico City and London virtual numbers launched.
 - Vonage launches "People do Stupid Things" campaign.
 - FCC declares Vonage VoIP service is interstate in nature, preempting states from regulating VoIP.

- 2005
- Vonage completes $200 million Series E financing round.
 - Vonage features free calling to Puerto Rico.
 - Vonage launches service in the United Kingdom.
 - Vonage donates Vonage phones to Katrina victims.
 - Wi-Fi phone is unveiled.
 - Vonage raises $200 million in convertible debt.

- 2006
- Virtual phone numbers launched across Western Europe.
 - Vonage files registration statement on form S-1 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
 - Michael F. Snyder appointed Vonage's Chief Executive Office; Jeffrey A. Citron named Vonage's Chief Strategist.
 - Vonage reaches over 1.9 million subscriber lines as of August 1, 2006.
 - Vonage announces free calling to France, Italy, Ireland, Spain, and the United Kingdom for Residential and Small Business Unlimited calling plan subscribers.
 - Vonage introduces the Vonage V-Phone.
 - Vonage acquires three key VoIP patents from Digital Packet Licensing Inc.

Vonage

2007

- Vonage Visual Voicemail service launched.
- Launched “Free to Compete” campaign.
- Jeffrey A. Citron named Vonage’s interim Chief Executive Officer.
- Vonage and Motorola announce a co-branded Internet telephone adapter with wireless router.
- Vonage launches V-Access.

2008

- Marc Lefar named Vonage’s Chief Executive Officer.
- Vonage introduces V-Portal; first in line of Vonage-branded products.
- Vonage reaches major milestone with its first organic technology patent.
- Vonage introduces Vonage Pro offering.
- Vonage announces completion of refinancing of existing convertible debt.

2009

- Vonage introduces Vonage World, which includes unlimited calling around the world and “readable voicemail.”
- Vonage unveils its first mobile application for iPhone®, Blackberry® and iPod touch®.

2010

- Vonage launches the Vonage Mobile application for Facebook.
- Vonage launches its Spanish-language experience, including an in-language website and call center.
- Vonage granted patent for virtual phone numbers.
- Vonage announced the successful completion of its planned refinancing.

2011

- Vonage expands service with FREE Extensions™
- Vonage signs distribution agreement with Tracfone® Wireless
- Vonage launches Time to Call™ international app for iPhone
- Vonage expands retail presence to Walmart, Best Buy, Kmart and Sears
- Vonage announces full repayment of $200 million institutional term loan
- Vonage launches FREE Extensions™ App for iPhone® and Android™ devices
- Vonage adds a second line for Extensions for only $4.99/month
- Vonage granted four patents

